

.Call for Submissions.

Fall 2009

Trade, Law and Development

After a successful call for the inaugural spring issue of Trade, Law and Development, the Editors invite submissions of unpublished, original manuscripts for publication in the fall issue of the Journal (vol. 1, no. 2 (2009)). The Editors seek to publish works of the highest quality sharing the theme and ideals of the Journal.

Trade, Law and Development seeks to provide an avenue for free exchange of ideas, critical thinking and constructive debate on issues of relevance to the international legal order and trading system. TL&D has a wide scope encompassing, inter alia, the areas of international economic law, commercial law, development, environmental law, legal education, intellectual property, dispute resolution, public and private international law. The Journal commits itself to the cause of eliminating the problems that plague the world today, in particular the developing nations.

It is in this spirit that the Editors seek quality "Articles", "Notes", "Comments" or "Book Reviews" from authors in all spheres, videlicet, students, practitioners, academicians, jurists and policy makers. For further information please see the submission guidelines on our website, or contact us!

Last Date of Submission for the Fall Issue: 15 October, 2009
